

Do you need help to live at home?

Do you fund your own care?

Do you receive a Direct Payment from Surrey County Council?

Or a Personal Health Budget from the NHS?

Just call

We provide information, advice and support on all aspects of organising care at home.

Including:

- managing your care funding,
- organising support from a care agency,
- recruiting, employing and training your own care workers or personal assistants,

...and much more!

For more details about how we can help you, just contact us!

SILC was founded in 1997 by a group of disabled people.

We believe that every older person, disabled adult, child, and carer should be able to live independently with the same choices, opportunities and control over their lives as anyone else.
